Tribe archipelago presets review

Remember how a few years ago, after returning from Way Up North in Stockholm, we kept preaching about the importance of consistency and curation of your wallet? Get ready to be amazed.. Nothing has changed! It is important to maintain a unique, uniform style and color palette in all your work. He tells his fans and potential customers that you're a professional and you know exactly what you're doing. It also helps them understand what kind of work they will get if they hire you. And while you can be lightroom's most talented, experienced guru, editing thousands of photos one by one, in the same palette of colors and tones, can be challenging, if not mind-booging. Presets help, whether you're creating your own or using and modifying the magic created by leading photographers in the industry. Here are our best favorite Lightroom presets. BH Presets Baptiste Hauville www.baptistehauville.com the insanely talented Baptiste Hauville has created a ready-made package that comes with three settings: electricity, fire and silver. Electricity is Baptiste's go-to preset, with an orange, warm and natural tone, Fire is ideal for photos taken on particularly sunny days; and Silver will delight any lover of black and white photos. Take a look at his presets here! Heck yes Presets Ben Sasso www.bensasso.com you know Ben Sasso's picture when you see one. This incredibly talented, funny and creative photographer who spends most of her time traveling around California in a van, with the amazing Katch Silva (scroll down to get gadgets from her as well). See his presets here. Learn more about his philosophy and process in this interview. Katch Silva Presets www.katchsilva.com – Custom Web Design by Flotthemes One of the most talented people we know.
